Will advocate the Freedom and Liberty of the Press, and will cheerfully support all measures looking towards an early restoration of the Southern States into the Union upon "True White Man's Basis

Plan of Organization of the Conservative People of North Carolina.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district- to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all maters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district committee for their respective districts and shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of of the county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active cooperation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare.

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive Legislative and Judicial department are equal and coordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That is it is the opinion of the Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

White Men must rule America

CLUBS FOR 1868.

The Best New York Weekly Published

THE NEW YORK DAY-BOOK FOR 1868.

THE New York Day-Book is a straight forward Radical Democratic paper with a larger circulation than any other Democratic journal ever published on this Continent, and it enters on the threshold of 1868 more prosperous and more hopeful of the great cause it upholds than ever before. Standing on the foundation of the Declaration of Independence, that "all (white) men are created equal," and therefore entitled to equal rights, it is opposed to all forms and degress of special legislation that conflict with this grand central TRUTH of Democracy, and over all, and above all, does it combat that monstrous treason to American liberty, which, thrusting the negro element into our political system MUST OF NECESSITY wreck the whole mighty fabric left us by our fathers. (God has created white men superior and negroes inferior, and therefore all the efforts of the past six years to AB LISH His work and equalize with negroes—every law violated, every State Constitution overthrown, every life sacrificed, and every dollar expended, are NECESSARILY just so many steps towards national suicide; and the simple and awful problem now upon us is just this—shall we recover our reason and retrace our steps, or march on to Mongrelism, social anarchy, and the total ruin of our country!

The Day Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the 'Union as it was'—A Union of co-equal States upon the white basis, as the only hope and the only means possible under heaven for saving the grand ideas of 1776, and the fundamental principles of American liberty, and if the real friends of freedom, and the earnest believers in that sacred and glorious cause in which the men of the Revolution offered up their lives, will now labor to expose the ignorance, delusion and treason of the Mongrel party, it will succeed, and the white Republic of Washington be restored again in all its original beneficence and grandeur.

The Day Book will, however, hereafter be more than ever devoted to all the varied purposes of a NEWS paper. Conscious that it reaches thousands of families who take no other journal, beyond perhaps their local paper, it will continue and improve its "News of the Week" Summary, so as to present a transcript of the World's events of each issue. Its "Family Department" will embrace the best original and selected stories. Its "Agricultural Department" will be fully sustained, and being the only paper of its class made up expressly for Country circulation, it is confident that it is worth double the price of a weekly hurriedly reprinted from a daily. It gives full and complete Reports of the New York and Albany Cattle Markets: Grain, Provision and Cotton Markets, and a Weekly Review of Financial Matters, together with the Markets by Telegraph from New Orleans, Chicago, Charleston, Philadelphia, &c., &c. up to the time of going to press,

DAILY ROUGH NOTES.

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1868.

THE so-called Constitution of North Carolina has been, it seems, ratified beyond the possibility of a doubt, and the people have imposed upon themselves that Constitution that will ultimately impoverish them, bring want to their doors, and place side by side, in our Representative Halls, where sat our Gastons, our Haywoods, and our Moreheads, the intelligent white man and the ignorant negro, the honest and the craven hearted. The white children of North Carolina—the bright eyed boy and the rosy cheeked girl—will be compelled to commingle in one common school with the offspring of one of God's curses, the descendants of Ham. Negro guardians will be placed over white wards negro jurors in the jury boxes—but all this was told this people before the day of election. But, we cannot believe that such a state of affairs was the choice, of the people of North Carolina—those who smiled at her prosperity or who now weeps at her adversity. It cannot be possible that they have been thus false to themselves The radicals—the successful party—have brought to their aid, for the accomplishment of their hellish designs, all the means in their power. Furnished with greenbacks by the Northern faction, they have printed and issued secret publications of every sort to delude and deceive the blacks; newspapers have sprung up, like mushroom in a night, to circulate openly, such lies as would be but too glaring to come to the gaze of the intelligent political speakers have been paid to stump the State in their favor; negro boys ranging between the ages of 15 and 20 have been made to swear falsely their ages, and to cast their votes for the Constitution. All this we repeat has been done to defeat the people of North Carolina and to force this instrument upon them.

Look in your own midst and whom do you see that is taking such a deep interest (?) in the welfare of your State? Is it those who tilled her soil before the rude ravages of war laid her waste and desolate? Is it those who, when the invader, who now lords it over you, was robbing you of your sustenance, and your State and Country appealed for help, buckled on the armor of war, and rushed to her defence? No! They are those who lead the despoiler to your very threshold—who robbed and plundered you of the means of existence—who made your children cry for bread and that cry to cause the aching heart of your cherished wife to bleed at their sufferings. They are those who, as soon as peace was declared, rushed back, like famished wolves to the dead carcase, and squatted in your midst with a greedy eye to gain. Tell us not that such craven hearted usurpers of your rights and privileges have the interest of your State at heart. Tell us not that it is a love for the Old Union that animates their breasts, but rather tell us that they are those who will by fair means or foul, gain all they can.

The late election has proved all this.—By lying they have deceived the people and by the grossest frauds have they gained their end. They are exulting over it and those who joined them are exulting with them. The future looks, we are bound to confess, but a future of burdensome outrages, villianies and wrongs. The deed is done and the die is cast.

SEVENTY FIVE THOUSAND illegal votes have been cast for the scallawagery Constitution, thus placing in a hopeless minority those who have been the true friends of this good old State—thus placing in office, men who have squatted among you—men who are treacherous, contemptable and vacillating—men who, like that quintessence of all the double distilled elements that the most vivid imagination could combine together, out of which to form a creature more wicked, more cruel, more tricky than the most infamous of all the host of scallawagery combined—Wm. W. Holden, men whose animus is hate, malice and meanness.

And those bad men, who are to control the destinies of the State fancy they have buried liberty and honesty so deep that they can never illumine the new darkened skies of our political horizon again. O! mistaken, silly fools—deluded, conceited apes, scheming tricking, asses! The Star of Liberty will yet again be emblazoned on the now trampled escutchem of the State. Liberty can never be destroyed! The chains with which she has been shackled and which are now being riveted yet the stronger, will ultimately be the weapons with which to strike her jailer dead, and place the reins of government in the hands of patriotic men; men devoted to the preservation of the principles of Liberty, Justice, Honesty, three principles unknown to a majority of the now dominant party.

POLITICAL ADVENTURERS.—The impudence of the political adventurers from the North and West who are roaming through the Southern States, says the Baltimore Sun, running for all the offices, from the highest to the lowest, is inconceivable. What would be thought in Massachusetts or Pennsylvania if some of the freedmen or radical whites of the South were to go there and insist on being made Congressmen, Legislators, or Governor? Yet this is just what these loafing, politis cal lazaroni of the States North of Mason and Dixon's line are doing in the Southern States, through the instrumentality of the untutored freedmen, who are made to believe that in electing these interlopers to office they are exercising the proudest prepogative of freedmen.

The Duty of the Southern Press.

In the extraordinary and deplorable state of affairs of the country, particularly in the section to which we belong, the life of a journalist is anything but easy and pleasant. He feels the utmost difficulty and embarrassment in dealing with the great questions which agitate the public mind, because from the peculiarity of his position all that he may say will be ineffectual, to work out any salutary results. At the North, where all the mischief which has been done had its origin, and whence alone is to come the remedy, the voice of the South, through her press, has but little influence; we mean the voice of the suffering millions, whose rights have been trampled upon by the rulling power, and who have been mercifully subjected to indignities and humiliations, no less abhorrent to the spirit of our institutions than revolting to every generous sensibility. In vain do we remonstrate against the unfeeling and bitter persecution by which we are pursued. In vain do we plead our helplesssness and desire for a peaceful restoration of our governmental relations upon the basis of the constitution which our fathers ordained. Nothing that we can speak and nothing that we can do can mitigate our woes or arrest the wild career of the passions which inflame the hearts of our persecutors. They seem to be determined to push their vengeance to the utmost, even although the whole republic be convulsed with social, political, commercial and financial disturbances of the most dangerous type. The situation is truly distressing—the prospect of its improvement by no means cheering. But yet the Southern press has a mission to fulfil. It does not follow, because its voice is unheeded when it ought to be at least respected, that it should cease to be heard. It should continue to hold up to the world the cruel wrongs which our people are growing under. It should keep before the people of the North the ultimately destructive tendency to themselves of the oppressive measures by which half of the so-called Union is reduced to desolation, that half of it, too, which but for these disastrous measures would now be contributing annually two hundred million of dollars to the national wealth.—Petersburg Express.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 25—Accounts from the country parishes do not effect, materially, the result already given.

The Supreme Court has decided that the Grant Jury, drawn under Gen. Hancock's order, composed entirely of white men, is illegal, and orders the discharge of the jury.

The decision rendered in the case of a negro convicted of murder appealed from the decisions of the district court. The court reversed judgment and quashed the indictment.

Our Martyrs.

JACKSON, MISS., April 25.—To-day was observed by the citizens in the sad but pleasing duty of decorating the graves of the noble dead of the lost cause.

The monument to the memory of the lamented Col. Robert Smith, of the 10th Mississippi regiment, was erected with imposing and serious ceremonies in the cemetary.

Radical consistency—drinking Democratic Lager Beer.

STATE News.

A negro man was killed in Wilmington, on Friday night, by attempting to get on the cars while they were in motion.

Wright Stanly, cullered, and James Conner, also cullered, got into an affray, on the corner of Market and Second streets, in Wilmington, on Friday night. Result—Stanly stabbed by Conner and Conner to be apprehended—if he can be caught.

AN Irishman in Wilmington endeavoring to learn the election news, appeared at the head of the Market house and attracted the attention of a crowd by bawling at the top of his voice, "Glorious! Glorious!" as if he had indeed heard news which was cheering and invigorating to the anxious mind. To the eager enquiry hurriedly made as to what was the news, judge of the [illegible] on being answered by this laughter-[illegible], provoking Irishman, "Bi Jasus! it is that I'd be afther finding out myself."

A negro who was too insolent to some ladies in Wilmington the other other day was brought to his senses by a gentleman, a family connection of the lady's who happened to be standing near and who promptly rushed upon the negro and seizing him by the collar, gave him a few well-directed and effected blows. This insolence would probably have been more severely chastised had not some friends of the gentleman near at hand caused him to desist.

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.—Reuben Wright (white,) and Minta Hairston (colored,) who were convicted at the October term of the Superior Court of Stokes of the murder of Silas, the husband of Minta, and appealed to the Supreme Court where the finding was sustained, was sentenced by Judge Cilley, at the late term of the court to be hung on the 21st of May. Two negro boys, accomplices, had their trial removed to Surry.—Winston Sentinel.

The Legislature.

As far as positively heard from, Conservatives have been elected to the House of Representatives as follows: Carteret 1, Sampson 1, Duplin 2, Columbus 1, Brunswick 1, Nash 1, Wilson 1, Harnett 1, Orange 2, Alamance 1, Cabarus 1, Stanley 1, Mecklenburg 2, Catawba 1, Cleveland 1 Rowan 2, Davie 1, Iredell 2, Caldwell 1, Alexander 1, Martin 1, Gates 1, Camden 1, Currituck 1—29.

And Conservative Senators, certainly from the following districts: Ninth (Nash and Wilson;) Twelth, (Duplin and Onslow;) Fourteenth, (Bladen and Columbus;) Sixteenth, (Cumberland, Harnett and Sampson,) two; Twenty-second, (Orange;) Thirtieth, (Mecklenburg;) Thirty-first, (Stanly and Cabarrus;) Thirty second, (Davie and Rowan;) Thirty seventh, (Gaston, Catawba and Lincoln)—10.

Among the Conservative legislators elect are such men as Hon. Jas. W. Osborne, Hon. Josiah Turner, jr., Dr, J. R. Ellis, Plato Durham, W. M. Robbins, Dr. Jas. A. Moore, and other men of mark and merit.—Sentinel.

The ball has been extracted and Prince Albert is doing well. He has been sent home.

FACTS AND RUMORS.

Cato, the elder, said. "That wise men learned more from fools than fools from wise men."

In time of danger and trouble, think first, and act cooly and decisively.

The dandy who makes the greatest flourish isn't always in the most flourishing condition.

A considerable emigration has set in from Pennsylvania to Virginia.

Linen weddings are a thirty years married feature.

Terra del Fuego sells girls for a pint of peanuts each.

It cost $40,000 to recover Maximilian's body.

Kansas reserves 3,000,000 acres for a school fund.

A Baltimore prayer meeting held for 13 hours.

The world has lost 1,743,491 men in battle since 1854.

Bottled Battler will soon be canned peach.

A negro in Houston Texas, has been arrested for stealing a pump from well.

Some men are like bugles—the more brass they have the most noise they make.

Beecher's advice to a poor young man is summarized—get married and run in debt for a farm.

A Western paper calls a rival editor an "animated spareril with some of the bristles attached."

The Radicals remember the soldier on only one day in the year—election day.

HUSBAND, I hope you have no objections to being weighed.' 'Certainly not, my dear, why do you ask?' 'Only to see love, if you would not let me have my weigh once.

An exchange explains the construction and management of railroads in this by saying 'Vander-bilt and Dan'l Drew.'

A wretch was heard to say, the other evening at a social party, that a young lady playing the piano forte was like an ape, because her fingers were, 'mong keys.

Irish citizen in grief, is asked by his friend what is the matter?

"Matter indade. Why here, I insured my brother's life only two wakes ago and yesterday he got killed with a derick. And whin I came to tell those insurances they'd after making some mistake, the blackguards thryed to bribe me off wid five hundred dollars—as if I was a haythen to sell me brother's blood."

A SEVEN-YEAR old boy was lately heard to use profane language On being reproved by his parents, and directed to ask God's forgiveness, he retired to his room and was over heard to say: "O, God, I am very sorry I said that naughty word, and won't say it any more; but please hurry and make me grow up to be a man and then I can swear as much as I want to, like pa, and no'body will notice it."

Two good natured Irishmen, on one occasion, occupied the same bed. In the morning one of them inquired of the other: "Dennis, did you hear the thunder last night?" "No Pat; did it really thunder 'ast night?" "Yes it thundered as if h'ven and airth would come together."—"Why in the devil then didn't ye wake me, when ye know I can't sleep when it thunders."

This the way a western editor records a melancholy events. What ails him?

"Yesterday morning, at four o'clock P. M., a man with a hole on the hole of his stocking, committed arsnic by swallowing a dose of suicide. The majest of the verdict returned a jury that the deceased came to the facts in accordance with his death. He leaves a child and six small wives to lament the end of his untimely loss. In death we are in the midst of life."

It is easy to say ill-natured things and thus get a reputation for smartness; but genuine humor doesn't flow from a bitter fountain. It is gentle and genial, comes from a bright and loving spirit, and refreshness while it excites to mirth and laughter. Less brilliant than wit, it is more agreeable While the one offends by its severity, the other makes man ashamed of his follies without exciting his resentment.

POETRY.

KIND WORDS.

One litte word, if softly spoken—
One little tear, if kindly shed,
Can heel the spirit bruised and broken,
And cure the heart that long has bled.

Once, in a distant land, a stranger—
Alike unknowing and unknown,
A prey to every hidden danger,
I wandered daily on alone.

With mournful tidings often greeted,
Until my soul was sick and sore,
My heart at last would not be cheated
With what had cured its pains before.

So deep and bitter was my sorrow,
Existance was a constant pain,
I wished not to percieve the morrow,
Or greet the gaze of man again.

Just then, when all was dark before me,
And hope had closed her wings to die,
The music of a voice stole o'er me
Scarce louder than an infant's sigh.

The words were few, but oh, how tender!
Their hallowed accents still I hear;
They made my stubborn grief surrender,
And banished every sinking fear.

Oh, ye who have no goods or money
To give to those who mourn and weep,
Kind words are sweeter far than honey,
And twice ten thousand times as cheap.

GRAY JACKETS,

And how they Lived, Fought and Died for Dixie

WITH

Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy, Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

THERE is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historic and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

It contains over one thousand closely printed double column, octavo pages, from new electrotype plates, on good paper, and is appropriately illustrated with over two hundred engravings on steel and wood, and a series of fine authentic maps.

It is highly commended by all learned and eminent men, and by the press generally, throughout the country, and is the best book of its kind in the English language.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

Owing to the unprecedented popularity of this work, a small English abridgment adapted to juvenile readers, in duodecimo form, of about 600 pages, has been reprinted by another firm in large type, and spread over 800 octavo pages, evidently—by making a book larger than its original—to give the impression that it is on edition. To those who desire this juvenile edition, we will, early in March, furnish the English work, far superior to the American, at $2.75 per copy. Send for circulars giving full particulars.

General Orders,
No. 57.

The Ordinance of the Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, convened in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," entitled "An Ordinance respecting the jurisdiction of the courts of this State," which was ratified in said Convention on the 7th day of March, 1868, and which is herewith published, is hereby approved, and will have the force of law in said State until the question of the ratification or rejection of the Constitution framed by said Convention, by the people of said State, shall have been determined by an election held in the manner prescribed by law, and, in the event of the rejection thereof, for the further period of thirty days: Provided, that the terms of said Ordinance shall not be held to apply to or conflict with any agricultural or labor lien guaranteed by any law of said State, enacted subsequently to the organization of the provisional government of said State under the President's proclamation of the 29th of April, 1865, or by any military orders from these Headquarters, now in force. And provided further, that all proceedings in any court of North Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investments of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the State of North Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the government of the United States, shall, as now, be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or by the Ordinance herewith published, shall be held to bar or hinder any legal proceedings in behalf of any minor heir, female, or insane person, respecting trust estate, property or interests in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, commissioners, masters, or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary charatter.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THIS STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That Sections 1 and 2 of the Ordinance of the Convention, adopted June 23, 1866, entitled "An Ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein," be and are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Be it further ordained, That Section 3 of the above entitled Ordinance be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. That all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit and account now pending in the Superior Courts, shall be continued to Spring Term 1869, and that the several Superior Courts at the Spring Term thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all such causes of action except where jurisdiction has been or shall be given to a justice of the Peace by the constitution or laws of North Carolina. Should the defendant at the Spring Term of 1869, on writs which shall be returned to that Term or in any suit, for the above causes of action then pending in the Superior Court, pay or confess judgment to the plaintiff for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest,) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the said dept or demand and costs, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-half of the residue of the dept or demand he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead.

At the said Spring term, the Plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, that the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof, is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall pay the installment required of what he admits to be due, and the court shall order a jury at the same or some subsequent term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next spring term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon paying or confessing judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury finds him indebted over and and above the same: Provided, further, that should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent installment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall se entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment, unless the defendant shall put in pleas, in which case the suit shall proceed according to the course of the court in 1860: Provided, further, that by consent of the plaintiff the defendant, at any term of the court, may confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim.

SECTION 3. Be it further ordained, That Section 10 of the above recited Act shall be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 10. That the executions on judgements in action of debt, assumpsit, covenant or account, or decrees for money demands in Equity, which have been or shall be issued on judgements or decrees heretofore obtained, shall be levied on the property of the defendant, and returned without sale: Provided, such return shall not prejudice any lien the plaintiff may acquire or then have by virtue of said fi. fa. or venditioni exponas.

At the spring term 1869, execution on all such judgements or decrees shall issue for only one-tenth of the amount then due; at the spring term 1870, for one-fifth of the residue; at the spring term 1871, for one-half of the residue, and at spring term 1872, for the balance of the debt; and no execution shall issue from the fall term on any such judgement or decree except by consent of the defendant; that no mortgagee or trustee shall expose to sale the property conveyed in such mortgage or trust deed, without the consent of the grantor before the first of March, 1869; should the mortgagor or trustor at that time pay one-tenth of the debts mentioned, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1870; at that time, should the mortgager or trustor pay one-fifth of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1871; at that time, should the trustor or mortgager pay one half of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to first of March, 1872; and at that time the trustee or morigage shall sell the property, or so much of it as will realize the balance of the debts: Provided however, that should the trustor or mortgagor fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalments, then in that case the trustee or mortgagee shall sell at six months' credit so much of the property conveyed as will realize such instalment.

SECTION 4. Be it further ordained, That Section 11 of the above entitled Act be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 11. That no warrant before Justices of the Peace shall issue or be returnable until January 1, 1869. Should the defendant upon such return to pay the plaintiff, or the collecting officer for his use, or confess judgment before the magistrate, for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest,) he shall be allowed twelve months to plead, at the expiration of that time, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the said debt or demand, he shall be allowed twelve months more to plead; at the expiration of that time the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, that the plaintiff, if required, shall file his claim in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which he shall particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Justice shall proceed to try the matters in dispute between the parties; and at the expiration of twelve months the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon payment of one-fifth of the amount admitted to be due and whatever the Justice may have found him indebted over and above the same: Provided, that should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgement for the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment: Provided, further, that by consent of the plaintiff the defendant may at any time confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim; that all executions and judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, which have been or shall be issued on judgments heretofore obtained before any magistrate, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale. At the expiration of twelve months from such return, execution on all such judgments shall issue for only one-tenth of the amount then due; at the expiration of twelve months from that time, for one-fifth of the residue; and at the expiration of twelve months more, one-half of the residue; and at the expiration of twelve months more, for the balance of the debt.

SECTION 5. Be it further ordained, That Setcion 17 of the above entitled ordinance be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 17. That the provisions of this Ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted or penalties incurred since the first day of May, A. D. 1865, or which may hereafter be contracted or incurred, except actions founded on any bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or any other instrument of writting or parol promise made since first of May, 1865, in renewal of or substitute for a contract made prior to first of May 1865, to the full amount of the principal and interest of a debt existing prior to said day, and without other consideration than such pre-existent debt, and except also actions, suits or process to revive, continue or enforce any judgment heretofore recovered upon any such bond, promissory note, bill of exchange or other instrument of writing or parol promise, as is heretofore mentioned.

Ratified this seventeenth day of March, A. D., 1868.
